

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Media consolidation benefits only those whose sole motivation is profit. Moreover, it undermines the very foundations of democracy by denying citizens access to vital information about corporate and government misconduct. Stand up for people's right to know, not for corporate greed.
